CIPH Board to Be On Hand to Dedicate Sixth Habitat for Humanity Home Build in Regina, Saskatchewan

Biak and Chin Zatlun are anxiously waiting to move into their new home where they can raise their four children in comfort and safety. The Zatlun's who are originally from Burma spent a number of years in a Cambodian refugee camp prior to settling in Regina. They continue to work towards putting in 500 hours of sweat equity to the home build project.

The CIPH Home Dedication ceremony will take place on Wednesday, October 28th at "The Exchange" in Regina. CIPH Chairman of the Board, Martin Deschênes (Groupe Deschênes) along with the CIPH Board will present the Zatlun family with the keys to their new home.

"I am truly proud to see how CIPH members have rallied together to provide product, cash, and volunteer their time to support a worthwhile cause like Habitat for Humanity. I am very pleased to be a part of such a generous association," states CIPH Chairman of the Board Martin Deschênes (Groupe Deschênes).

Thank you to both Wes Sapicha (Wolseley) and Steve Jackson (Jones Goodridge) for their leadership in Co-Chairing the CIPH Saskatchewan Home Build.

"Thank you to all the CIPH Saskatchewan members for supporting this CIPH Home Build. It truly is a great experience to be a part of. Working together as an industry has given me a better understanding of the words "a hand up not a hand out," states Wes Sapicha (Wolseley).

Thank you to the following companies for their support of the Home Build:
Asta Sales & Marketing, B.A. Robinson Co. Ltd., Jones Goodridge Inc., Uponor, Ltd., and Wolseley Canada.

Since 1994, the Canadian Institute of Plumbing & Heating members have contributed more than $5.1 million in products and cash to Habitat for Humanity Canada and helped over 1,000 Habitat families move into simple, decent, affordable homes across Canada.

Information on how to donate to Habitat for Humanity Canada through CIPH is available on the Habitat for Humanity section of CIPH's web site: www.ciph.com.
