TIME: 7:45 am – 9:00 am

SPEAKER: Ross Sinclair, Plumber/Gasfitter

Ross has been a plumber/gasfitter for 40 years. He owned and managed Viking Installations for 33 years. In 2003, when he realized how pressure zones were piped in highrise buildings, he decided to find a better way. This led him to patent his ideas, which have now been implemented in 8 highrise buildings in Calgary.

In the case of the 22 storey SAIT residence, it led to another patent pending idea which was implemented into all the building's heating through the walls with the domestic hot water.

TOPIC: Better Ways to Pipe Pressure Zones

Ross will expand on both of his ideas, and present the ones that he has patented.
