

Market Insights

delivering timely information affecting your business & the industry

“The New Competition Act and What it Means for Your Business” Featuring Mark Opashinov of McMillan LLP

12:00 noon - 1:00 pm, Thursday, March 11, 2010

About our presenter:

Mark Opashinov has more than a decade of experience in advising Canadian and foreign businesses on all aspects of corporate and competition law. In Mark's competition law practice, he counsels businesses on the regulatory aspects of their transactions as well as provides advice on the civil and criminal provisions of Canada's Competition Act.

Mark has acted for parties across the range of industry including in the automotive, computer, chemicals, energy, entertainment, financial services, food processing, health care, manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, professional services, publishing, telecommunications, and transportation sectors. Mark is a frequent writer and speaker on competition law topics.

mark.opashinov@mcmillan.ca

Plan to attend a Webinar on “The New Competition Act and What it Means for Your Business” featuring Mark Opashinov of McMillan LLP. This webinar presentation will cover the following key areas of change in the 2009 amendments to the Competition Act including:

- Pricing and Distribution – how do the recent amendments add flexibility to your pricing decisions and what areas are more risky than before?
- Competitor Agreements – when is a deal with your competitors a legitimate business practice... and when is it a criminal offence?
- False and Misleading Advertising under the Competition Act, including “Made in Canada” claims.

The webinar will be followed by a question & answer period.

Join us on Thursday, March 11th at 12:00 noon ET (9:00 am Pacific)

Who Should Participate?

Senior Industry leaders who have questions and concerns about the implementation of HST, and how it will affect their business.

Registration Fee (per site):

EFC/S&D/CIPH Members: $99 per person + applicable tax.

Non-Members: $129 per person + applicable tax.

Click here to register!

Don't miss this opportunity to get the latest information on this critical issue facing your business - register today!

Sponsored by:

Partners in Distribution Excellence